EXPERIMENT No.

Dear Mr. George,

I thank you for your letter sent through
Sai. Belgaumkar and also for your congratulations.

I am grateful to the B.D. Goenka Foundation for selecting me for the award

I note the details of the function. Sri. Belgaumkar has met me and asked me about the arrangements for my travel.
I would like to leave by train Hubli by train on the 15th of March with my wife and sons to help us.
I would like to return from Bombay on the 18th. I hope arrangements will be made for our travel. It would be good if I am told where I will be put up so that I may write to some of my friends in advance about my stay there.

Please let me know whether it will be possible to invite a few of my friends to the function in which case I will send you their address well in advance.

Thanking you once again

yours sincerely

Dear Sri. Acharya,

We are overwhelmed to learn that the prestigious "GOYANKA AWARD" for Journalism for 1990-91 was conferred on you on 17.3.1992 at Bombay.

Ack 3/992
Journalism as such is a tough subject which attracts more of FOES than FRIENDS. Also the Journalists are the persons who bring to light the deficiencies and also highlight the achievements etc in any system, Administration etc through their articles. This really needs courage and conviction on the part of Journalist.

Conferring of the above AWARD to you is an indication of your involvement and the dedication to the profession and recognition of untiring services that you are rendering through the media.

On behalf of self and the Institution which I am serving ie., 'CANARA BANK', I hereby convey HEARTIST CONGRATULATIONS and wish for many more laurels in the days to come.

WITH KIND REGARDS

Sincerely yours

Dear Capt. Mohindra

We have reached Hatali comfortably.

Although the Goenka award
Function had to be ~~put off~~ postponed for reasons beyond the control of the control of the formulation, I thank you for the decent arrangements you made for us during our stay in Daday and for the consideration you and your staff showed to us.

I hope the date of the postponed date of the function will be made known to ~~us~~ me sufficient in advance.

With regards,

J. S. Singh

On this occasion, I congratulate my young friend
Sri T.N. Ninan, co-recipient of the Goenka award.
He has many more years ahead and I hope he will scale newer heights in the profession.

Mr Chairman, Sri J.R.D.Tata, Chief-guest, Sri Achyut Patwardhan, Sri Nani Palkhwala, Sri B.L.Varghese, Mr Justice Tulzapurkar Jr. L.I.B.Ananthmurthy, Smt. Saroj Geenta, Sri Vivek Goenka, Sri Manoj Santhalia, Sri T.J.S. George, Sri T.N.Ninan and distinguished Guests,

It is little difficult for me to express myself adequately on this occasion when the highest recognition in the land for Journalism in an Indian language for the year is being conferred on me. I consider it to be an honour to the Kannada language in which I have been writing during the last fifty years or so and I am thankful to the B.D.Goenka Foundation and the Committee which has selected me for the honour. <sup>To</sup> <sub>A</sub> The late Ramanath Goenka's forethought in ensuring that atleast one award should go every year to an Indian language, I bow in gratitude.

I am also elated that the award has given me an opportunity to see towering personalities like Shri J.R.D.Tata, Shri Nani Palkhwala and the honoured members of the Jury whom I have known by their writings and activities only.

Sir, It has been my good fortune to be recognised for my work quite early. My employers, the Loka Shikshna Trust, trusted me enough to put me in the editorial charge of the Kannada monthly digest Kasturi which was quite a new type of magazine when it was founded in the year 1956. The magazine gained reputation not only in Karnataka but also by the readers in Maharashtra and Andhra. My endeavour has been not to stress the negative aspect of Indian life but the positive side, not to provoke conflict but to create an understanding of the problem; to create an awareness of the contemporary world around us, rather than to dwell on the glorious but dead past. In an effort to create a new consciousness, the magazine contributed its <sup>mite</sup> to the development of modern Kannada which the Citation has noticed.

Since

<sup>the</sup> Since my retirement in 1975, I have continued to write to journals on variety of topics including Wordlore, contributing to the understanding of words, the basic stock-in - trade of all literature. But Sir, doing things is one thing and being recognised for the work is another. I am grateful that my own State and people have rewarded me sufficiently and now the B.D.Goenka Award is the highest recognition that has come my way for which I thank all concerned.

Dear Shri George,

This is in continuation of my previous letter. As mentioned in that letter, I am herewith enclosing the addresses of my select friends whom I would like you to invite for the award presentation ceremony. Hope you would arrange for it.

I presume that copies of invitation would be sent to the leading newspapers in Karnataka. I am particular that invitations are sent to dailies published from Mangalore and Manipal in Dakshina Kannada district.

I got the message from Shri Balgaumkar that I would be lodged at Hotel Oberoi in Bombay and that I would be receiving by the Bombay staff on arrival in Bombay on 16th morning. Many thanks for the same.

Thanking you once again.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr Acharya,

I am sorry I could not write to you earlier, but may I on behalf of the Trustees congratulate you on your being chosen for this year's BDG Award.

As conveyed to you through our staff correspondent Mr Belgaumkar, the presentation function will be held in Bombay on the evening of March 17, a Tuesday, with Mr J.R.D.Tata as the chief guest. After you make your wishes known to Mr Belgaumkar, we will arrange for your travel to Bombay and stay there.

The procedure at the award function is that a member of the jury, usually Mr Nani Palkhivala, will read the citation, then the awardee will be escorted to the platform where the chief guest will make the presentation. The awardee then makes a brief response, usually no more than five minutes. He is then escorted back to his seat.

There will be staff volunteers at the function to attend to you. If there is anything you want us to do, please let me know through Mr Belgaumkar.

Looking forward to meeting you in Bombay and with every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

member of the jury, usually Mr Nani Palkhivala, will read the citation, then the awardee will be escorted to the platform where the chief guest will make the presentation. The awardee then makes a brief response, usually no more than five minutes. He is then escorted back to his seat.

There will be staff volunteers at the function to attend to you. If there is anything you want us to do, please let me know through Mr Belgaumkar.

Looking forward to meeting you in Bombay and with every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Shri George,

The packet which you sent from Bangalore was delivered to me personally on Tuesday last by your Hubli Staff Correspondent Shri H.G. Belgaumkar. The packet contained among other things the Bank Draft for One Lakh of Rupees on the Indian Bank being the Award money.

I thank you profusely for this kind gesture on your part.

I have been ailing with Asthma for some time and it would have been very difficult for me to undertake the journey for the Award function at Bombay. It would have been an embarrassment for all of us if I had come over there in that condition. Thank God, the formal function scheduled for Monday last was dropped. Now the ceremony could be held at a later time convenient for all of us which I hope would be at an early date.

I am particularly thankful to you for the consideration with which you and your Bombay office treated me all these days.

Thanking you. With regards.

Dear Sri T.J.S. George

I am sorry I could not contact you earlier since my seeing you in Bombay on the 17th of this month. I returned hereafter the G.D.Goenka Award Ceremony was postponed in unfortunate circumstances. I was informed that the postponed date of the award giving would be later made known to me.

I must however thank you for the very comfortable arrangements made during my stay at Bombay.

I am now called to my native place, Udupi, in south Kanara for an important family function to take place there in the middle of the next month. I plan to stay there for a few days. It would be of great help if you let me know when the Award Ceremony is now likely to take place so that I may arrange my stay at Udupi.

Thank you,

Yours Sincerely,

Dear Sri George,

I wrote to you last week enquiring about the possible date of the postponed ~~date of the~~ Goenkā Aranand ceremony.

As I wrote in that letter, I have to leave for Udupi (South Kanara) on the 9th inst., which is a little earlier than I anticipated. I give my Udupi address overleaf so that you may write to that address in case you <sup>have anything</sup> need to. I will inform you when I return to Hubli.

Thanking you

Dear Shri P V Achary

Bombay,
5th Feb. 1992.

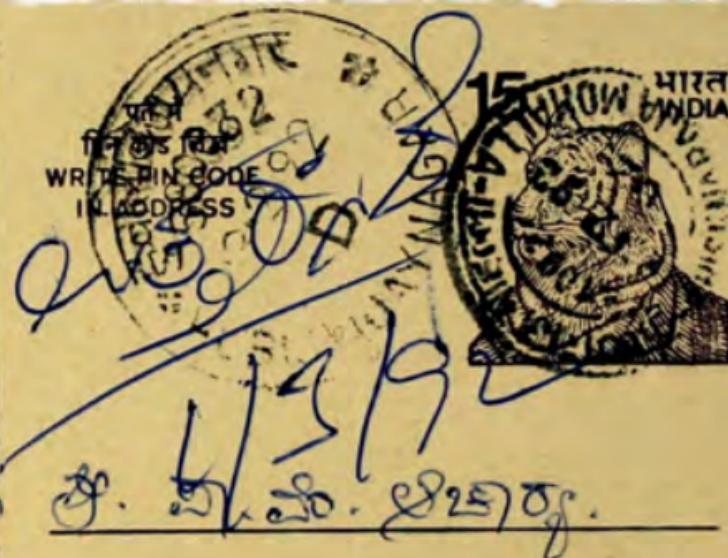

Adorations and Salutations to you.

Hearty congratulations to you for having won the B. D. Goenka award for excellence in journalism as the editor of "Kasturi". You are must and the journal attained its fragrance through your innovations and ideas. Kindly accept my humble congratulations. I have become friendless and had written a letter from Madras but there was no reply. God

My dear Shri Acharya.

Bombay,
25th Feb. '92.

Adorations and salutations to you.
If you are not in good health, let this serve as a nejevanastoo. Get well soon.

"Fall many a gem of purst nay serene
The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear!
Fall many a flower is born to blush unseen
And waste its sweetness in the deserts air"

Fearless I had written! You need no laurels or recognition because you have been recognised in the heart of millions at least in the Kannada language. The present is some thing; accept gracefully.

I am overwhelmed that you have put me in the category
of a friend and
this recognition will elate me to the skys.

May God grant
you satisfactory
and useful life in which my humble prayers & regards
lie. Yours sincerely
E.G. Hegde
